

352 Quiz 14

Kai Chang

From the Cea Lemma, we notice that the upper bound of the error of the Galerkin solution scales with the error of the best solution linearly. This means although the Galerkin solution is not necessarily the best solution, its convergence rate is of the same order as the best one's. This is what makes Galerkin methods powerful.